

*What does the word
"leadership" mean to you?*

„Leader is someone who makes their employees feel safe, is who draws people into the circle of trust. But building trust and security - especially in an uneven economy - means taking on a lot of responsibility“. – Simon Sinek

Conclusions

To be a good leader...

You need good communication skills and that is what true leaders stand out for. Be a leader who supports your employees, encourages them to grow and develop and provides them with all the support they need by giving and receiving feedback.
