

Main character

 Module II

 Course
Animation

 Topic
Animation shape and background

 Lesson IV

Activity

- Short Description: Description of the main characters, taking into account their personalities and questioning their movements to understand their structure within the story.
- Methodology: Research-based learning.
- Duration: 1h
- Difficulty (high - medium - low): medium
- Individual / Team: team
- Classroom / House: Classroom/house
- What do we need to do this activity?
 - Hardware: pc or tablet
 - Software: any illustration software as photoshop, procreate, adobe sketch, Autodesk sketch, krita, clip studio paint, sketchbook and others.
 - Other resources: pen, paper.

Description

- Text description: Specifically describe my main characters, designing their dimensions in order to know if my story is moved by the character or vice versa.

Instructions

1. Socialize the ideas of characters and the stories in which they will be immersed.
2. Obtain referents of them to have concrete ideas about what they are like.
3. Describe their physical, psychological and sociological dimensions.

Expected outcomes

- Characters similar to the referents and characters known in the experience.
- Rich character backgrounds that help build the story.
- Characters that are supported by the story and must be corrected so that they have more personality and their own vigor.

DIGICOMP (Competences developed):

2.3 Engaging in citizenship through digital technologies

ENTRECOMP (Competences developed):

1.2 Creativity; 2.1 Self- awareness and selfefficacy; 3.4 Working with others.

Example (when necessary):

Buchanan

Buchanan is a Presidential Secret Service agent. He takes his job pretty serious, especially when his main job is protecting the first dog. Buchanan is a big, muscular, big man, who sometimes forgets that he is an adult who works for the Executive in Chief. He can be occasionally absent-minded but he is very loyal to the man closest to him.

Expressions

Buchanan never smiles. Not even when alone.

His features characterized by high nose of emotion, even though he never smiles.

By captured just at a moment with Buchanan.

Rotation

Buchanan always looks to the side, not forward, a little more.

Design Breakdown

